IMMANUEL LUTHERAN CHURCH & PRESCHOOL

From Our Administrative Pastor...

Dear Brothers and Sisters of Immanuel,

“I’m at a crossroad in my life.” Have you ever heard anyone say that? It means that person has a big decision to make. He or she may have to decide whether to get married and raise a family or stay single. Go to school for more education or go to work in order to make more money. Get an operation or continue to struggle with a painful condition. Being at a crossroad means you have to make a choice about what to do.

Being at a crossroad will be the theme of a sermon series that Immanuel will enjoy during the season of Lent (Ash Wednesday is March 1). Called At the Crossroads, each sermon will explore how various people involved in the passion of Christ came to a crossroad when they had to decide which way to go. Some of these crossroads include David’s decision to repent and confess his sins; Judas’ decision to betray Jesus; Pilate’s decision to give in to the crowd; Jesus’ decision to show compassion to an enemy; Peter’s decision to deny or confess Jesus; Jesus’ decision to be obedient to his Father in heaven.

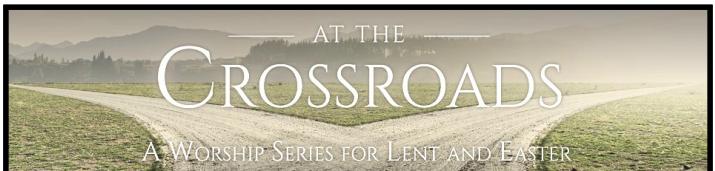

At the Crossroads, I think, will be a very engaging and uplifting sermon series. It’s sure to incorporate the Lenten emphasis on repentance and grace plus some very practical help for Christian living. Pastor Demski and I are looking forward to exploring these crossroads with you during our Lenten journey. Join us as we prepare our hearts and mind for Easter through Lenten worship!

I also want to let you know that Immanuel’s Narthex Expansion Committee is busy getting bids from various construction companies for the construction of a new narthex. The plans are all drawn and estimates of the cost of this construction will be available very soon. Before you know it, we’ll be “at a crossroad” when we decide whether or not to proceed with construction. Keep the committee and Immanuel in your prayers as we proceed forward with this exciting project!

As always, Jesus bless you richly! May this Lenten season be one of profound reflection and awe over God’s wondrous love for you and your family!

Love in Christ,

Pastor [Signature]

From Our Associate Pastor...

“Ask the Pastor”

Greetings brothers and sisters in Christ! I've heard the following question from a couple of people and it's an intriguing one. "Was Adam really the first man?" Let's take a moment to think this through. Was Adam truly the first man, or was he simply the first of "God's people" or something as some claim? As we begin we'll start with the only source of truth. Scripture. Then we'll interpret that Scripture with a very helpful tool...more Scripture. While "context, context, context" is a vital principle when reading the Bible, we also have to remember this principle: "Scripture interprets Scripture". We don't isolate Genesis from the rest of Scripture just like we don't isolate one verse in the Bible from all of the ones around it. So, let's dig in.

Genesis 1:26 says, "Then God said, "Let us make man in our image, after our likeness. And let them have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the heavens and over the livestock and over all the earth and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth." And then in verse 27 we hear: "So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them."

That was all well and good as there was evening and there was morning on the sixth day. So what's the deal when we get to Genesis chapter two and hear about God creating Adam from the dust of the ground?

This isn't a contradiction or a suggestion that Adam wasn't the first man. Instead, the book of Genesis provides us with two different vantage points or, if you'd prefer, two different camera angles of creation between the first and second chapters.

In chapter one we are led through the creation account with a wide-angle lens of the events. We hear what happens on each day as the one true God uses his amazing power to bring matter into existence. We hear as empty chaos and nothingness is replaced with created order. For some good discussion on creation vs evolution go to issuesetc.org and type "creation part" into the search field. That will allow you to find all of the segments of a series on creation they did not too long ago.

When we get to Genesis chapter two, the lens changes and we get a close up of the creation of man. The camera angle zooms in as we go back in time to the day man was created so we can see it up close and personal. The mood of the scene changes and we get God's intimate connection with mankind as man is formed by God's hand and God breathes life into man. No longer is God the aloof powerful deity that we see in the first chapter. In chapter two he's the gentle and loving creator who intimately creates man in his image.

Even if we have some question regarding whether Adam was the first man based on the way Genesis is written, we appeal to that principle I talked about at the beginning: "Scripture interprets Scripture". We can look through the rest of Scripture and see where Adam is referenced as the first man, often in relation to Jesus being the first man of the new creation. Here are just a few of the references regarding Adam and his significance historically and theologically: Luke 3:38, Romans 5, 1 Corinthians 15:45, 1 Timothy 2:13.

If you want to chat more about this or have other questions, feel free to come chat.

Pastor Dennis

A “Note” from our Music Director

February is "heart month!"

During my teaching career, my students would participate in "jump rope for heart" in February. This is a program where pledges are sought, and timed jumping takes place to obtain money for the American Heart Association. Most often, this jumping took place with background music being played. Jumping to the rhythm/beat of the music seemed to make the task much easier for everyone.

Recently as I was playing for both Sunday services, the thought occurred to me once again that music is a huge part of Immanuel's worship. Although no jump roping takes place as I hear the volume of the congregation's voices, the singing comes from the heart of individuals as His praises are being sung.

In Psalm 111 verse 1 we read the following:

Praise the Lord! I will praise the Lord with my whole heart, in the assembly of the upright and in the congregation.

May we always praise Jesus with our whole hearts—not just in February—but throughout the entire year!

Serving Him,

Jenn

An Update from Our Missionary Partners...

Funke News: In Your Light We See Light

We have so enjoyed all the twinkling lights of this season, but even more so we have appreciated the many reminders of how Christ shines light in dark places. A friend recently reminded us that ten years ago, Linda wrote a prayer for Valparaiso University's prayer book titled, "In Thy Light We See Light." As we move into 2017, this is our prayer, and we hope many others will pray it with us:

For justice

Jesus, friend of outcast and hope for the despairing, Grant us the generosity to give fish to all who are hungry. Help us to teach others to fish, so that they may be empowered. Give us wisdom to stop polluting the pond and the fortitude to tear down the fences that have been built around it, so that all may have access to the goodness of Your creation. Grant us the humility to listen to the stories of outcasts and the despairing, so that we may likewise be fed by their wisdom and insight. In so doing, may we be signs of the coming of Your kingdom of peace and justice, and may we love with the same passionate, radical love that you have shown us. In your life-giving name, Amen.

Back in Tanzania

Our school has been closed for the Christmas break and will reopen for a new school year on January 9. The roof is finished on the new administration building, and if all goes according to plan, the staff will begin using it in February. Also, a special thank you to all of you who have been praying for our friends Dixon and Christy and have donated towards helping them rebuild after the fire. Their friend who was in the house at the time of the fire has now been released from the hospital and is just continuing to return to the hospital regularly to have the bandages changed. Dixon and Christy still need about $2,000 to replace all that was lost, so if you are able to help, please go to <http://globallutheranoutreach.com/support-gbeanquoi.html> or write a check to "Global Lutheran Outreach" with "Gbeanquoi" in the memo line. Checks can be mailed to Global Lutheran Outreach, 6709 Ficus Dr., Miramar, FL 33023. They will return to Tanzania on January 15th and will be staying in Pastor Mimii's house until they can find a new home.

Upcoming

We will begin the long journey back to Tanzania on January 17th. Please pray for smooth travels, a drama-free reentry, and a quick recovery from jet lag.
